

Person specification – class teacher

Essential	Desirable
QTS and evidence of a commitment to on-going CPD	Experience of teaching primary aged children to a very high standard
An understanding of how the ethos of a school impacts on learning	An understanding of how the Christian nature of the school impacts on its day to day life
An understanding of what makes outstanding teaching and learning	A willingness to take on subject leadership
An understanding of growth mind-sets and how this can motivate children to succeed	An optimistic personality with a can do attitude
The ability to motivate staff and engage parents
The ability to plan exciting lessons and to understand what we mean by mastery
The ability to work with our highly talented TAs to promote learning
An effective communicator with a good level of written and spoken English
A willingness to work with other schools and to promote our collaborative partnership
A warm and friendly personality that encourages trust
A smiley face, even when life is challenging!	