If you have any queries in advance of the meeting, please do drop me a line at emmakirschen@hotmail.com, otherwise, see you there!

HARVEST TEA PARTY 2016, Saturday 1st October, 1-3pm at school

Building on the success of last year's inaugural tea party and BAKE OFF we hope you'll join us for more cake-based fun on 1st October. So, if you have a budding Paul or Mary on your hands, read on and get practising... there are prizes to be won! If, however, you fancy yourself as more of a cake-eater than cake-baker, then we need your skills too – come along for a cup of tea and a wedge of something delicious.

In addition to baked delicacies, we will be creating harvest-themed bunting and even trying our hands at making corn-dollies. (On which note, if anyone has access to – and would be prepared to donate – some long stemmed wheat please do get in touch: emmakirschen@hotmail.com)

Bake Off Details:

These are slightly different to last year so pay attention...

There will be 4 categories – “biscuits and pastries”, “cupcakes”, “scones”, “showstoppers” – and all categories are open to all ages.

Bake Off entries must be delivered to school between 11.30am and 12 noon on Saturday 1st October and there is no need to pre-register.

Judging will happen between 12 and 1pm (behind closed doors) and the results will be displayed alongside the entries from 1pm, when the Tea Party begins.

Entries will be up for grabs (for a very reasonable price!) with teas and coffees from 1-3pm.

And crafts will run in the Year 3 classroom from 1-3pm too.

With something for everyone, please do come along. In the meantime, READY, STEADY, BAKE!
